

Sunday, September 18, 2011
“Saying No—How Can That Be?” – Hebrews 12:1-3

- ❖ As disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ—as followers of Jesus who by faith know Him as Savior and Lord—as beloved children of the Lord God—we have been given the promise of the divine _____ which enables us to stand against every temptation of Satan. (2 Peter 1:2-4)

- ❖ In order for us to daily—consistently—make the determination, the unwavering commitment to stand against Satan’s temptations, we must carry out two courses of action:
 - Action #1:
 - Run with _____ the race that is set before us! (Hebrews 12:1)
 - We can’t grow _____ in pursuing and making the choices for godliness.
 - We can’t become _____ by the spiritual immensity and the spiritual demands required for godliness.
 - We can’t slip into an attitude of _____ in our race for godliness.

 - Action #2:
 - Looking to _____ (Hebrews 12:2); Consider Him (Hebrews 12:3)
 - Jesus is both our capability and our _____ for godliness.

Run, look, and consider!